FOSSIL-FUEL DIVESTMENT OF FACULTY ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Whereas it has been the opinion (based on reports and major actions) of companies and sovereign wealth funds such as MSCI and the Norwegian Sovereign Wealth Fund that divestment of fossil fuels is financially prudent

Whereas the University’s Working Group on Responsible Investment has recommended an ESG-focused investment policy (Environment, Social Governance) for both ethical and financial reasons; and

Whereas the student club Fossil Free UW and large involvement in the recent climate strike has shown students want the university to act on climate change and implement fossil fuel divestment.

Be it resolved that the Policies and Procedures Committee be tasked with drafting an advocacy policy supporting the divestment of faculty endowment funds from ‘fossil fuel’ assets.

Guy and Councilor Kanan.

Motion to amend policy procedure committee and add education advisory council (EAC)

Deputy Speaker Small and Vice President Velling.
