Duties as President

The President is the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and is responsible for administering the affairs of the Waterloo Undergraduate Student Association, in accordance with the bylaws and with the support of the Executive Committee.

The President is the official spokesperson for the Corporation and is responsible for all communications, as well as the branding and messaging the Corporation displays.

The President is responsible for oversight of the vice-presidents and ensures the alignment of strategic goals with the Corporation's objectives.

The President is the head of student government and presides at all General Meetings and serves as the Speaker of the Students' Council.

The President will act as a representative to, or provide for appropriate student representation for the Corporation, in accordance with Council procedure, at:

1. Official Functions
2. Public occasions
3. The University Senate
4. The Board of Governors, and
5. Any other University Committees or decision-making bodies.

The President, in collaboration with the Vice Presidents, is responsible for maintaining and promoting relationships with key stakeholders:

1. Undergraduate Students and their representatives (e.g. Societies, Residence Councils)
2. University Administration
3. External stakeholders, and
4. Other student governments (including the Graduate Student Association)

The President is responsible for:

1. The creation, maintenance, and implementation of the Waterloo Undergraduate Student Association's Long-Range Plan
2. Providing strategic direction to and supporting the vice-presidents, General Manager, and officers of the Corporation
3. The regular review of the by-laws, policies, and procedures of the Corporation
4. The empowerment and supervision of the Secretary of the Corporation
5. The publishing and the calling of the agenda for General Meetings
6. The hiring of the Chief Returning Officer, and by extension for the administration of all Students' Council and undergraduate Senator elections and by-elections
7. Enforcing compliance with the bylaws, policies, and procedures, and other relevant governing documents.

The President oversees the Vice President, Operations & Finance's supervision and evaluation of all full-time staff and oversight of human resources.

The President will normally be the vice-chair of the Board of Directors. The vice-chair is responsible for supporting and empowering the Board and the chair of the Board, ensuring the Board is given adequate training to conduct business effectively.

The President reports to the Board of Directors and Students' Council.

Time Commitment

The term of office for the President is from May 1, 2021 to April 30, 2022 and is a full time position. The President will also be expected to attend certain events outlined in their job description that may fall outside of regular working hours, including committee meetings, serving official functions, and certain public occasions.

Candidate Eligibility:

Candidates for Executive positions must be full members of the Waterloo Undergraduate Student Association. According to the bylaws, a full membership is defined as follows:

1. Each undergraduate student currently registered at the University of Waterloo;
2. Each undergraduate student currently engaged in a co-operative work term;
3. Each undergraduate student who is not registered in the current term but who was registered in the previous term and has shown intention to register in the next term; and
4. The President and Vice-Presidents of the Corporation.

The President is an ex-officio Director on the Board, which has the following additional requirements:

1. Must be at least 18 years of age;

2. Must not have been declared incapable under the laws of a Canadian province or territory, or by a court in a jurisdiction outside Canada; and
3. Must not be an undischarged bankrupt or expect to become bankrupt during the duration of the term of office.

Nominations for Executive positions require the signature of the candidate and the signature of one hundred (100) other electors.

The Chief Returning Officer, or designate thereof, with the assistance of the RPO, shall verify the validity of each nomination form. If a nomination is invalid, the nomination will be rejected and the candidate will be notified. Candidates whose nominations are rejected after the end of the nomination period will have two business days to make corrections and amendments.

Candidates who have not clarified their membership status by either adding sufficient classes to their schedule or arranging their fees will not be allowed to stand in the election.

How much does it cost to run?

Executive campaigns have a strict spending budget of $375.00 per candidate. Campaign teams may receive a higher spending limit depending on the campaign team size. Candidates will receive a reimbursement from the Waterloo Undergraduate Student Association for up to one hundred per cent of their spending budget. Spending budgets for both executive and non-executive campaigns can be found in the WUSA Elections and Referenda document [Section G.1]. Candidates, campaign teams, and referendum committee accruing three (3) or more demerit points will receive a reduced reimbursement. Disqualified candidates are not eligible for this subsidy.
