

How WUSA Used Books Works

Selling books

You get paid 85% of the selling price once your books are sold. If your book doesn't sell within 18 months, you can either pick it up or leave it with us.

Books not used at Waterloo may be exportable. Come into the store, email us or call to check the export price.

How to get your money

Sign into your account using your student number wusa.ca/services/used-bookstore

When your book(s) has sold, click the $ to request a cheque from the store. You or someone you know must pick up your check within 6 months from when it's printed or it will expire.

Book status

You can check the status of your book(s) on your account:

Available	Book is on the shelf ready to be purchased.
SOLD	Book has sold and you can request a cheque.
TO TAKE	Your book expired. E-mail us including your student number to pick it up.

Cheque payout

Cheques are printed on the date listed inside your account. Here's how it can be picked up:

- 1 Come into the store with photo I.D. to pick it up.
- 2 Fill out the book/cheque pick up form found on our site. Have someone bring it in and pickup your cheque.
- 3 Send in a self-addressed stamped envelope with your student number on the back and a completed and signed Cheque Mail Out Form, found on our website
