

Fall 2023 Decades Dance Party: 2000's

Event FAQs

1. Do I need a physical ticket to get into the event?

Students will need to show their confirmation email at the door along with their government issued ID and student ID card. Physical copies are required for admission into the event. Photocopies will not be accepted.

2. Can I purchase tickets for my friends?

UWaterloo undergraduate students can purchase one ticket for themselves and one ticket for their guests on the WUSA events page under the category of guest in the ticket section.

3. Can I purchase tickets for the event on the day of the Decades Dance Party: 2000's?

Tickets can be purchased on the day of the event subject to availability. Visit <https://wusa.ca/event/wusa-decade-dance-party-2000s>.

4. Are there age restrictions for this event?

This event is open to UWaterloo undergraduates, graduate students and their guests who are 19+.

5. Does my guest need to accompany me upon entry?

Each guest must be accompanied by a UWaterloo undergraduate student upon entry. UWaterloo students are responsible for their guests.

6. Where is Maxwell's located?

Maxwell's is at 35 University Ave. E. in Waterloo.

7. Will there be shuttles or transportation provided for the event?

No transportation is being provided for the event. Students will need to arrange their own transportation to the venue.

8. Can I get a refund if I change my mind about attending?

All sales are final, and no refunds will be issued.

9. Is there a dress code for the event?

The dress code for the event is casual. No large bags are allowed in the venue and coats/jackets/purses are subject to checks. Students are encouraged to dress like in the 2000's era, but it is not mandatory.

10. Can I bring a non-Waterloo guest to the event?

This event is open to Waterloo undergraduates and their guests. The guests include any post-secondary students and Waterloo graduate students only. This excludes Waterloo or any post-secondary alumni.

11. How many guests can I bring?

UWaterloo undergraduate students can bring one guest with them to the event.

12. Is there re-entry into the event if I choose to leave the event?

There is no re-entry into the venue once you have left the event.

13. Will beverages be available for purchase during the event?

Drinks will be available for purchase. Cash, debit, and credit cards are accepted.

14. Is outside drinks or food allowed in the venue?

No outside food or drinks are allowed in the venue.

15. What is the start time of the event?

The event begins at 9:30 pm and goes on till 1:00 am. Doors open at 9:30 pm.

16. Are reminders sent to us prior to the event?

A reminder email is sent to all event registrants prior to the event to remind them of any event changes, important reminders or logistical details related to the event. This email will be sent to the email address students use to purchase their ticket. If you a student doesn't receive this email, please check the spam folder and the events website for the most up to date event details.

Do you have additional questions related to the event? Email Cassidy, Special Events Coordinator, at cbwagler@wusa.ca.